

PRIVACY NOTICE

How we use the School Workforce's Information

Under Data Protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

The privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school.

Bishop Ramsey Church of England School is part of the Veritas Educational Trust.

Veritas Educational Trust, Hume Way, Ruislip HA4 8EE is the Data Controller for the purposes of Data Protection law.

As a public body, we have appointed Grow Education Partners Ltd as our Data Protection Officer (DPO). The responsible contact at Grow Education Partners Ltd is Mr David Coy (see "Contact us" below).

1. The personal data we hold

Personal data that we may collect, use, store, and share (when appropriate) about those we employ or otherwise engage to work at our school includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details (such as telephone number, email address, postal address, for you and your emergency contacts)
- Protected characteristics (such as trade union membership, nationality, language, ethnic origin, sexual orientation and religion or belief, where this has been provided)
- Relevant medical information (such as physical or mental health conditions, including for any disabilities for which the organisation needs to make any reasonable adjustments to fulfil its duty of care)
- Information about your remuneration (such as salary, annual leave, pension, bank details, payroll records, tax status and benefits information)
- Information about your criminal record
- Recruitment information, (such as copies of right to work documentation, references and other information included in a CV or cover letter or as part of the application process)
- Qualifications and employment records (such as work history, job titles, working hours, training records and professional memberships)
- Assessments of your performance (such as appraisals, performance reviews and ratings, training you have participated in, performance improvement plans and related correspondence)

- Outcomes of any disciplinary and/or grievance procedures, including any warnings issued to you and related correspondence
- Details of periods of absence (such as holiday, sickness, family leave, sabbatical, including the reasons for the leave)
- Photographs (for internal safeguarding & security purposes, school newsletters, media, and promotional purposes)
- Closed-circuit television (CCTV) footage
- Data about your use of the school's information and communications system.

We may also hold personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers, information provided during the completion of our pre-employment checks, and from the Disclosure & Barring Service, in order to comply with our legal obligations and statutory guidance.

A full breakdown of the information we collect on the school workforce can be found in the record of data processing which can be requested from Rachel Jerham, Exams and Data Manager, via e-mail to rjerham@bishopramsey.school

2. Why we collect and use this information

The purpose of collecting and processing this data includes but is not limited to:

- Running the school in an effective and efficient manner
- Enabling you to be paid and other benefits to be provided
- Facilitating our safer recruitment of staff, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards students
- Fulfilling our legal obligations in recruiting staff
- Supporting effective performance management and appraisal
- Supporting effective management of the school workforce, along with the implementation of its policies and procedures
- Providing feedback to your training centre and awarding body
- Informing our recruitment and retention policies
- Allowing better financial modelling, administration and planning
- Providing references where requested
- Equalities monitoring and reporting
- Responding to any staffing issues
- Improving the management of workforce data across the sector
- Supporting the work of the School Teachers' Review Body
- Assessing the quality of our services
- Complying with the law regarding data sharing.

3. The lawful basis for using this data

These are defined under Data Protection legislation and for personally identifiable information are:

- To fulfil a contract with you
- You have given consent for one or more specific purposes
- Processing is necessary to comply with the school's legal obligations
- Processing is necessary to protect your vital interests
- Processing is necessary for tasks in the public interest or exercise of authority vested in the controller (the provision of education)
- Processing is necessary for the school's legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party.

When we process special category information, which is deemed to be more sensitive, the lawful basis, defined under Data Protection legislation, can be summarised as the following:

- You have given explicit consent
- Employment, social security and social protection
- It is necessary to fulfill the school's obligations or your obligations
- It is necessary to protect your vital interests
- Processing is carried out by a foundation or not-for-profit organisation (includes religious, political or philosophical organisations and trade unions)
- Reasons of public interest in the area of public health.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you can withdraw consent if you wish to do so.

4. Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional. If it is mandatory, we will explain the possible consequences of not complying.

5. How we store your data

We collect, store and process data for each member of the school workforce. The information is contained in a virtual or physical file which is kept secure and only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment. Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our retention policy.

Please refer to the Trust's Records Management Policy and Records Retention Schedule for further information. These documents are available on our website: <http://www.bishopramseyschool.org> and can be requested from Paul Burchell, the Data Protection Lead at the school, via e-mail to pburchell@bishopramsey.school

6. Transferring Data Internationally

We may send your information to other countries where:

- we, or a company we work with, store information on computer servers based overseas, or
- we communicate with you when you are overseas.

We conduct due diligence on the companies we share data with and note whether they process data in the UK, EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland) or outside of the EEA.

The UK and countries in the EEA are obliged to adhere to the requirements of the GDPR and have equivalent legislation which confers the same level of protection to your personal data.

From organisations who process data outside the UK and EEA we will assess the circumstances of how this occurs and ensure there is no undue risk. Additionally, we will assess if there are adequate legal provisions in place to transfer data outside of the UK.

7. Who we share information with

We routinely share staff information with appropriate third parties, including:

- Our local authority, to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and information relating to certain staffing matters
- The Department for Education, to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it
- Your family and representatives, such as in the event of an emergency
- Educators and examining bodies, such as ensuring we adhere to examining regulations to guarantee the validity of examinations
- Ofsted, such as during the course of a school inspection
- Training centres and awarding bodies, in order to provide information and feedback on your performance
- Suppliers and service providers, to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for eg. HR, payroll, employee benefit schemes
- Financial organisations eg. Pension Schemes
- Central and local government, such as workforce analysis
- Our auditors, to ensure our compliance with our legal obligations
- Trade Unions and Professional Associations, to enable them to provide the service their members require
- Health authorities (NHS) and Occupational Health and employee support schemes to ensure the wellbeing of our staff body
- Professional advisers and consultants, for us to develop our service to best provide our public service
- Charities and voluntary organisations
- Police forces, courts, tribunals and Security organisations to create a secure workplace for all staff
- Professional Bodies
- Employment and recruitment agencies and future employers to support reference requests.

8. Why we share your information

In order to successfully perform our functions, we need to share personal data with organisations. For example, we are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment educational attainment.

9. Data collection requirements:

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005.

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education, including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance.

The department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether the DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data.

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

To contact the department: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

10. Data Protection Rights

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- NOT provide information where it compromises the privacy of others
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

You also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

In most cases, we will respond to subject access requests within 1 month, as required under Data Protection legislation. However, we are able to extend this period by up to 2 months for complex requests or exceptional circumstances.

We reserve the right to verify the requester's identity by asking for Photo ID. If this proves insufficient, then further ID may be required.

Your other rights regarding your data:

- Withdraw your consent to processing at any time. (This only relates to tasks where the school relies on consent as a lawful basis for processing)
- Ask us to rectify, erase or restrict processing of your personal data, or object to the processing of it in certain circumstances and where sufficient supporting evidenced is supplied
- Prevent the use of your personal data for direct marketing
- Challenge processing which has been justified on the basis of public interest, official authority or legitimate interests
- Request a copy of agreements under which your personal data is transferred outside of the European Economic Area
- Object to decisions based solely on automated decision making or profiling (decisions taken with no human involvement that might negatively affect you)
- Request a cease to any processing that is likely to cause damage or distress
- Be notified of a data breach in certain circumstances
- Submit a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)
- Ask for your personal data to be transferred to a third party in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (in certain circumstances).

If you would like to exercise any of the rights or requests listed above, please contact

E-mail: GDPR@bishopramsey.school

Post: Bishop Ramsey Church of England School, Hume Way, Ruislip, HA4 8EE

Phone: 01895 639227.

The school will comply with Data Protection legislation in dealing with all data requests submitted in any format, but individuals are asked to preferably submit their request in a written format to assist with comprehension.

11. Data Protection Breaches

If you suspect that your data or the data of someone else has been subject to unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction or damage, then we ask that you advise us without undue delay by contacting Paul Burchell, the Data Protection Lead at the school, via e-mail to pburchell@bishopramsey.school

12. Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance using the GDPR request e-mail address as shown above or in writing to the school marked clearly as a GDPR query.

To make a complaint, please contact our Data Protection Officer, Mr David Coy, via e-mail to david.coy@london.anglican.org or telephone 07903 506531.

Alternatively, you can refer a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

13. Contact us

If you have any questions, concerns or would like more information about anything mentioned in this privacy notice, please contact either our School Data Protection Lead, Mr Paul Burchell, IT Manager, Bishop Ramsey School via e-mail to [pburchell@bishopr Ramsey.school](mailto:pburchell@bishopr Ramsey.school) or our independent Data Protection Officer: Mr David Coy Grow Education Partners Ltd, via e-mail to david.coy@london.anglican.org or telephone 07903 506531.
