Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 8 Trip – Royal Albert Hall

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to inform you of a trip open to all Year 8 students to the Royal Albert Hall on Wednesday 9th November.

The event is a concert showcasing musicians aged 14-18, from a mix of genres and ensembles, and a performance by saxophonist Jess Gillam. The concert aims to inspire students to engage more actively in music, and to make live music more accessible.

We will be leaving school at 10.25am on the day, and students will be back at school for approximately 4.00pm where they will be dismissed to make their own way home. The cost per student is £5.50. We are only able to take 20 students, therefore should your child wish to attend please complete the MS form via the below link, by no later than Tuesday 1st November.

Names will then be picked out of a hat in order to decide who will go on the trip, and parents of those children will be contacted on Thursday 3rd November to confirm their attendance and to arrange payment. Students eligible for Pupil Premium will receive funding for this trip.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me, cwalshe@bishopramsey.school.

Yours sincerely,

Miss C Walshe
